Theology and Doctrine Quiz © 2006 M. J. Greene, Paraclete Press Research Service, Inc.

Even if you are not able to benefit by formal Bible College or Seminary training it is still possible to informally study and learn Christian Theology and Doctrine. Are you interested in knowing your current level of biblical understanding? Do you think you know foundational truths of the Christian faith? Do you understand what it means to "study to show yourself approved, rightly dividing God's Word?" Spend some time taking this Quiz to test your knowledge of biblical theology and doctrine.

Common reactions to this Quiz demonstrate the following:

a. There is a varying range of beliefs and biases held by those who consider themselves to be a Christian; despite the fact the Bible clearly teaches there is "one body and one Spirit...one hope...one Lord, one faith, one baptism." (Eph 4:4-5) God intends that His own believe as one.

b. Many who say they have a strong faith still are not able to describe the doctrines by which they are saved or the theological context. We are called to defend "...the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints" (Jude 3). In order to share or defend the faith, one must study God's Word. Doctrine simply means "teaching." God intends that His own know biblical doctrine.

c. Most are unaware of the positive value of organizing and summarizing the truths of the biblical revelation of God to man. Testifying of our Christian beliefs is not optional. By our testimony our beliefs are made known. God intends that His own testify of correct revelation.

d. Few confidently understand the teachings of false religions, cultic beliefs and apostate movements. Yet, when believers systematically learn the Word, internalizing spiritual truths taught by the Holy Spirit, they are able to recognize and refute counterfeit teachings offered by false prophets, teachers and movements. God intends that His own mark and avoid false teaching.

e. While this Quiz is elementary, falling short of a comprehensive survey of Bible doctrine, it presents selected essential highlights, which taken together, point to the value of systematic study of theology and doctrine, available to any serious Bible student. God intends that His own study.

The Quiz is 140 questions: 15 Multiple Choice, 60 True or False, 33 Fill in the Blank, 31 Matching and 1 Essay. The Essay question asks the student to write a personal Statement or Affirmation of Faith. This should be based in part on understanding questions 1 - 14 listed in Section IV, along with knowledge gleaned from studying the Quiz, completing the Answers, and reading the optional Commentary. In the Essay question try to convey meaning, order, and completeness in the ideas expressed. There are a total possible 400 points (MC: 97; T/F: 60; Blank: 129; Match: 31; Essay: 78 (up to 6 points per 13 doctrines); and 5 bonus points for finishing test prior to looking at the answers. The purpose of the Quiz is to pique the interest of motivated students to go on to further study. The Quiz only assess general knowledge. It is one of many tools one can use. The Christian life is designed to grow one's faith; to develop increased wisdom and understanding, leading to maturity and ability to share Christ and His Word with others. Eternal rewards depend in part on one's desire to "study to show thyself approved" (2 Tim 2:15).

Remember this foundational fact: Only when we prepare before our study with prayer will our efforts produce lasting and accurate mastery of the truths God reveals in His Holy Word. Believing that the Holy Spirit is our primary teacher, we agree to be taught by the Word, rather than seeking confirmation of our own convictions.
