The small inventory was hand selected over a period of 8 years, acquired from hundreds of sources, suppliers and ministries. Some titles are no longer in print. The current inventory covers about 550 titles. Seventy-five percent of those titles are priced less than $10.00.

Although we cannot take special orders and inventory of some titles is limited to one copy, the available resources are 'spiritual nourishment' for those who desire to most effectively enhance their study of God's Word.

Corrie's Annex serves as a guide for the Bible student, encouraging readers to observe 2 Tim 2:15, rightly dividing or accurately handling God's Word. It is one thing to provide excellent Bible teaching resources for purchase. But because the goals of this ministry do not focus on selling merchandise, M. J. Greene endeavors instead to steer visitors away from typical Christian marketed materials passed off as legitimate resources. Those who come to the Annex or visit the ministry website, www.pprsinc.com are warned against the majority of available materials that actually are false teaching --works that are grounded in human philosophy, self help, mysticism, psychology, Gnosticism, social and political activism and motivational theory. Corrie's Annex inventory titles do not offer these false works, instead providing titles that teach accurate biblical interpretation and life application. This ministry does not limit suggested titles to a few selected authors or publishers. Truthful content, i.e., the accuracy of the book's teaching as compared to the Bible is the only criteria for selection. Just as seminary journals provide reviews of books and articles for their readers, this ministry is more focused on influencing readers' selection of materials than actually selling those materials. That someone's life is positively changed by helping them learn how to upgrade the supplemental materials they use to study and learn God's Word is central to the work of this ministry.
